A Word from Our FRG Leader

Welcome Families!

My Name is Ms. Ann Aldrich and I will be your FRG Leader. I am a mother of three and a grandmother of one. I am originally from Scappoose, Oregon. I just moved to Columbia in April 2010.

The Family Readiness Group is a volunteer organization that is designed to create a support system and assist the families of the Soldiers assigned to the USASD. We plan on having fundraisers and family oriented events so we can all get together have a little fun!

I look forward to meeting each and every one of you and your families.

~Ms. Ann

Hale and Farewell

We want to welcome SPC Timmy Haney to the USASD In processing Team! We look forward to working with you.

Come and bid Farewell to CPT Ebony Calhoun at our first FRG meeting. She will be having her change of Command on 11 Feb 2011.

~We wish you good fortune as you move on to your next assignment.

You will be missed!

SGT Melissa Collier and SPC Jamie Garcia has left the USASD and moved on to new units within the Brigade.

~Good Luck to you both and we are always here for you and your families.

We miss you!

SHOUT OUTS!

Congratulations to all of the students that have graduated in the months of January and December. Good Luck to you and your families as you move on and put forward your newly gained knowledge.

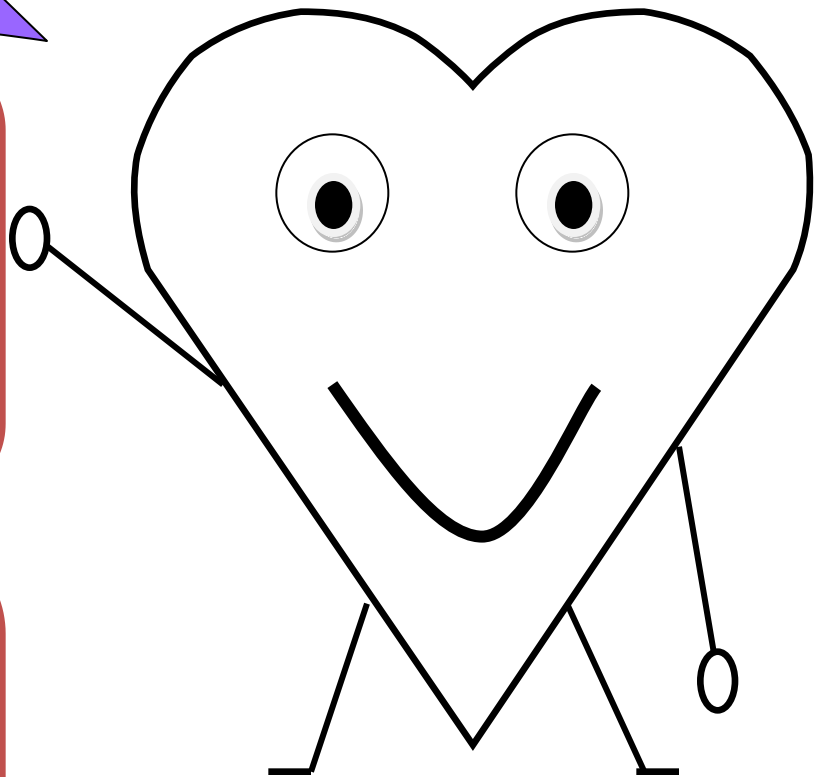

To Our Deployed Soldiers: We want to wish you a safe and speed return to your families and friends.

To The Families of our Deployed Soldier: If you need anything at all, please do not hesitate to contact one of us. We are here for you.

Look forward to future news Letters containing a Calendar of upcoming events within the FRG and on FT Jackson!
